100WHF 2nd Gen: Career Assessment/Networking Workshop

May 18, 2010 at 6 PM
New York

Please join fellow members of the 2Gen Committee for an intensive career assessment and networking workshop.

This workshop will help you develop assessment tools to measure your skills and discover insights to guide you to your ideal role.

Claire Wyckoff, our keynote speaker, is a writer, consultant and publisher on the subjects of careers, human resources and business issues. She is an adjunct professor at New York University and co-author of The Right Leader: Selecting Executives Who Fit. Ms. Wyckoff is also an executive coach and will share her experiences and advice for developing your skills and taking charge of your career.

We will then have an opportunity to practice Ms. Wyckoff's strategies in small breakout sessions. You will learn how to apply her invaluable techniques to both current job searching and overall career advancement.

Bring a supply of your business cards and you will leave with new contacts and a new game plan for your career.

Biographies

Claire Wyckoff

Claire Wyckoff is an author and executive coach, specializing in career transitions and social media.

Claire's interest in career planning and development began when she became a senior executive in the book division of the American Management Association. She went on to edit a number of books in the field and eventually began writing about careers herself. Her books in the field include Top Careers in Two Years: The Arts, Top Careers in Two Years: Technology, (both Facts on File, 2007) and The Right Leader (Wiley, 2009). Her articles on the subject of executive selection appear regularly in nearly a dozen journals including Forbes, Chief Executive, and Performance & Profits.

Having made two successful career transitions, Claire began coaching others on these skills in 2007. She currently divides her time between her writing and her busy coaching practice.

Claire holds a B.A. in history from Mount Holyoke College and an M.A. from NYU. Claire's course work in the coaching field has been done at NYU. She is a former director of the National Council of Teachers of English and is active in the Financial Women's Association.
