About Capvent

Capvent is an established institutional investor in private equity, headquartered in Zurich, Switzerland. They currently advise private equity fund-of-fund programs of over $2.2 billion, having invested in 92 funds across mature and developing private equity markets. Capvent commits approximately $200 million to $300 million of capital per year to private equity investments. Founded in July 2000 by managing partners Tom F. Clausen and Varun Sood, Capvent is based in Switzerland, with offices in India and the U.S.

In 2003, Capvent set-up operations in India, establishing the first private equity FoF program in that country. The team in India comprises 19 investment professionals including 2 experienced partners, Varun Sood and Rohan Ajila, who each possess extensive private equity investment networks in Asia.
