By Invitation Only - An Evening with Susan Payne

May 25, 2011 at 5:45 PM
Zurich

Susan Payne is principal of and founded Emergent Asset Management Limited in 1997, an award-winning, alternative investment firm based in the UK. Emergent also manages the largest agricultural fund in Africa. Senior practitioners are invited to spend an evening with Susan, where she draws on her experience, expertise and elaborates on:

- Food security and the geopolitical framework
- Harnessing the spare capacity in arable land, high local off-takes and a large and willing workforce in Africa
- Socially responsible high impact investing - with high returns

Susan's speech will be preceded by a short presentation by Sophie Dick of Bloomberg, which will focus on Bloomberg's ESG offering in terms of socially responsible data and analytics.

Biographies

Susan Payne, CEO, Emergent Asset Management Ltd

Susan has worked in the emerging markets on both the sell and buy side for over 20 years. After having been called to the Bar in Canada in 1985, Susan joined JP Morgan in 1986, and was part of the original eight-person global Emerging Markets Group. During her tenure as Head of Emerging Markets Sales, Europe, the global group grew to number over 250 people and became established as the market leader in emerging markets securities, including both debt and equities over several years. In 1993, Susan joined Goldman Sachs International as an Executive Director and Head of Sales and Trading responsible for developing its emerging markets debt business in Europe.

In 1997, Susan founded Emergent Asset Management Limited, an award -winning, alternative investment firm based in the UK, where she is a Principal. In addition to its stable of top-ranking hedge funds, Emergent manages the largest agricultural fund in Africa, where its local office is based in South Africa.

In both 2007 and 2008, Susan was listed by Financial News as one of the Top 100 Women in Finance in Europe. Susan was awarded one of eight Shell UK Women of the Future Awards 2006 and was short-listed for the CBI First Women Awards in Finance, 2005. In 2008, Susan was appointed a Merrill Lynch/Shell UK Women of Achievement Ambassador.
