Education Session No. 276:
UPDATED INVITE - An Evening at the London Stock Exchange

July 5, 2011 at 6:30 PM
London

Join us at the London Stock Exchange to discuss derivatives and regulation in the continually-shifting industry landscape. We will weigh the potential impact of the recent developments in regulation and venue consolidation on the market and its investors, with insightful commentary from some of the industry's leading regulators and participants. As Europe's largest exchange with a market capitalization of over $3.5 trillion, the LSE serves as an apposite venue for this event with a deep history that stretches back over 200 years.

Participants

Gay Huey Evans, International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc.
Kate Wormald, Managing Director, Oesa Limited
Nicolas Bertrand, London Stock Exchange Group
Dr. Robert Barnes, UBS Investment Bank
Stuart Anderson, BlackRock Multi-Asset Client Solutions

Biographies

Gay Huey Evans, Vice Chairman of the Board, International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. Gay Huey Evans was appointed Vice Chairman of the Board and Non-Executive Chairman, Europe of the International Swaps and Derivatives Association in January 2011. Ms. Huey Evans returned to ISDA after a long and distinguished career in the financial markets, holding senior roles in both the banking and regulatory sectors.

Prior to joining ISDA, Ms. Huey Evans served as Vice Chairman of Barclays Investment Banking and Investment Management (IBIM) with responsibility for Barclays' relationships with Sovereign Wealth Funds.

Prior to joining Barclays in April 2008, Ms. Huey Evans was Head of Governance, Citi Alternative Investments (EMEA) and President of Tribeca Global Management (Europe) Ltd., Citi's proprietary hedge fund prior to its acquisition of Old Lane in 2007.

Before joining Citi in 2005, Ms. Huey Evans was Director of Markets Division and Capital Markets Sector Leader at the Financial Services Authority (FSA). During her tenure at the FSA, Ms. Huey Evans was appointed Chairman of the Joint Forum, a group of technical experts working under the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS), the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) and the International Association of Insurance Supervisors (IAIS).

Ms. Huey Evans joined the FSA in 1998 from Bankers Trust where she had been a Senior Managing Director. During her tenure at Bankers Trust, Ms. Huey Evans served as the Chairman of the International Swaps and Derivatives Association (ISDA) from 1994 to 1998. Under her leadership, ISDA developed its central strategic role in serving the global OTC derivatives marketplace and became the leading industry organization in helping to make markets safer and more efficient.

Ms. Huey Evans currently serves as a Non-Executive Director of the London Stock Exchange. She is a Trustee of Wigmore Hall, a Trustee of Wellbeing of Women and a Trustee of Bucknell University.

Ms. Huey Evans graduated with a B.A. in Economics from Bucknell University.

Kate Wormald, Managing Director, Oesa Limited

Kate Wormald qualified as a Barrister in 1987 and after completing her pupillage went to work in the City for Hill Samuel. Over the past 24 years she has gained experience as an in house counsel to large financial institutions including Daiwa Securities, Salomon Brothers and Goldman Sachs. Kate provided legal and regulatory support to the fixed income, equity, emerging markets and foreign exchange proprietary and arbitrage trading desks for both derivatives, structured and cash book products.

Kate has contributed to many industry committees dealing with a host of legal and regulatory issues including various ISDA working groups.

From 1999 to 2002 Kate was a "Grey Panther" within the Markets and Exchange Division of the FSA advising on the impact of the regulatory changes occurring during N2 including the Code of Market Conduct.

In Autumn 2002 Kate established Oesa Limited to provide legal and regulatory services to Hedge Funds and their investment managers. In particular Oesa reviews and negotiates the secondary trading documentation required by the Hedge Funds and their investment managers to establish and maintain trading and counterparty relationships.
