

An evening of holiday shopping, complimentary wine and hors d'oeuvres at Thomas Pink

Thursday, November 3rd, 2011 at 6:00 PM
Washington, D.C.

Join us for an evening of early holiday shopping, complimentary sparkling wine and hors d'oeuvres, while supporting a great cause at Thomas Pink's newly designed concept store in The Mayflower Renaissance Hotel.

100WHF's DC Philanthropy Committee and Thomas Pink have partnered on this private shop-for-charity event to benefit the William J. Clinton Foundation's US childhood obesity program through the Alliance for a Healthier Generation. The event will kick off with a brief presentation by the beneficiary, and feature 100% in-kind donations of Chandon Rosé, food by BLT Steak and music by Jamology. 15% of all proceeds from the evening will support the beneficiary. We would like to thank Thomas Pink, BLT Steak, and Jamology for their incredible generosity. We would also like to express our appreciation to all of our corporate sponsors below for their generous financial support.

Admission is free. Space is limited and available on a first-come, first-serve basis by registering ahead of the event. Due to limited space, all guests must be registered individually by name.

About The William J. Clinton Foundation

The William J. Clinton Foundation is a nonpartisan 501(c)(3) organization, founded by President Bill Clinton with the mission of strengthening the capacity of people throughout the world to address pressing global challenges. Working in collaboration with governments and other partners, the Foundation applies a unique problem-solving method to each of its seven initiatives, which work to combat the HIV/AIDS pandemic, fight climate change, and develop sustainable economic growth in Africa and Latin America.

In the U.S., the Foundation helps to expand economic opportunity by increasing access to low-cost financial services and empowering entrepreneurs, and works in partnership with the American Heart Association to tackle the childhood obesity epidemic through the Alliance for a Healthier Generation. Through these efforts, the Foundation has helped 1.4 million people living with HIV/AIDS access lifesaving treatment, 40 cities fight global climate change, and nearly 4,400 schools promote healthier educational environments.

About Alliance for a Healthier Generation

The Alliance for a Healthier Generation works to address one of the nation's leading public health threats-childhood obesity. The goal of the Alliance is to reduce the prevalence of childhood obesity by 2015, and to empower kids nationwide to make healthy lifestyle choices. Founded in 2005 by the American Heart Association and William J. Clinton Foundation, the Alliance works to positively affect the places that can make a difference in a child's health: homes, schools, doctor's offices, and communities.
