Dinner Event with Howard Marks, Chairman, Oaktree Capital

December 8, 2011 at 5:30 PM
Los Angeles CA

The 100WHF Southern California Education Committee invites you to a dinner with speaker Howard Marks on December 8, 2011.

Spend an evening with Howard Marks as he talks about why managing risk is the way to returns, and what he sees as the way forward in time to plan for a fresh start in 2012. In his words, what "broader set of probabilistic outcomes" might we face in the new year?

We invite the entire hedge fund community to this special dinner event which is the final in a year long celebration of the 10th anniversary of 100 Women in Hedge Funds. Now numbering over 11,000 members around the world, the organization makes a difference in the alternative asset investment community through unique educational programming, professional development initiatives and philanthropic endeavors.

Howard Marks is chairman and co-founder of Oaktree Capital Management. Since the formation of Oaktree in 1995, Mr. Marks has been responsible for ensuring the firm's adherence to its core investment philosophy, communicating closely with clients concerning products and strategies, and managing the firm. Marks is known for his well-written and wise client letters. This year the public has access to his writings with the publication of "The Most Important Thing: Uncommon Sense for the Thoughtful Investor." In his book, he encapsulates his thinking shared with clients over the years, and exhorts the investing public to go beyond simplistic and mechanistic approaches to investing.
