100WHF Family Holiday Concert and Philanthropy Thank You Event, London

December 10, 2011 at 3 PM
London

2011 has been an exceptional year for 100 Women in Hedge Funds' philanthropic endeavours. Our UK charity of the year, the Child Bereavement Charity, wanted to have one final event - not to raise money - but instead to say thank you and to celebrate our partnership. At previous events this year, members enjoyed the chance to meet and network, but this is a 'family' charity, and what better way to end the year than at an event not just for individual members but for our immediate families too.

The Holiday Concert is a concert, not a service, so people of all faiths and none, and singers of all abilities and none are encouraged to come and enjoy traditional carols together and to celebrate a year that will eventually transform child bereavement services in the UK. With a children's choir, an adult choir, and the combined noise of 100 Women in Hedge Funds members, this will be anything but stuffy! Children are especially welcome.

No fee. The concert will last approximately 1 hour and there will be goodie bags for children and light refreshments for all.

Spaces are limited and will be first come, first serve.

About Child Bereavement Charity

The Child Bereavement Charity (CBC) is the UK's leading charity that supports families and educates professionals both when a child dies and when a child is bereaved. Currently the charity trains around 5,000 professionals each year across health care, social care, education, the emergency services and the voluntary sector. It also provides a national support and information service, award-winning resources, an interactive website with an online forum for bereaved families, and Buckinghamshire-based family bereavement support.
