Philippe Jabre Talks Markets
January 25, 2012 at 6:30 PM
Geneva

The world economy experienced a tumultuous 2011, with the effects of sovereign credit downgrades, natural disasters, and political uprising reflected in market performance.

Join us for an evening with Philippe Jabre, founder and CIO of Jabre Capital Partners. Philippe will wrap up 2011 with a review of the circumstances that led to the best and worst trades this past year. He will follow the recap with insightful thoughts on themes and trends to watch out for in 2012.

Biography

Philippe Jabre, Chief Investment Officer, Jabre Capital Partners

Philippe Jabre completed his Masters in Business Administration at Columbia University in 1982 after which he trained at JP Morgan. In 1983, he joined BAii Asset Management (a subsidiary of Banque Nationale de Paris) where he developed a deep understanding of equity-linked fixed income products. He became a Managing Director and Head of Portfolio Management in 1986 and transferred to the London-based business of BAii Asset Management. In 1997 he joined GLG Partners, then a division of Lehman Brothers International (Europe), to take over responsibility for asset allocation and management of global convertible bonds and equity-linked investments. He was a managing director of GLG Partners LP and a key portfolio manager.

In 2006, Philippe founded Jabre Capital Partners, an asset management and advisory business based in Geneva. The services of Jabre Capital Partners focus mainly on investment management of alternative/hedge funds as well as Luxembourg-based UCITS funds. The group has offices in Geneva and the Cayman Islands, and employs over 60 people. Philippe is Chief Investment Officer of Jabre Capital Partners which now manages seven funds across a number of investment strategies. In January 2010 Jabre Capital Partners won 2 EuroHedge awards in the 'Best Fund of the year' and 'Best Convertibles & Volatility Strategies Fund' categories.
