Education Session No. 344:
SENIOR PRACTITIONERS ONLY: Fireside Chat with Robert Wolf of UBS

June 12, 2012 at 5:15 PM
Toronto

As Chairman for UBS Americas and President for UBS Investment Bank, and also economic advisor to US President Barack Obama, Robert Wolf has a unique perspective on the global banking industry and the North American economy.

Wolf will share his views on the future of banking and the state of the US Economy and recovery mandates. He will also comment on the 2012 Obama presidential campaign election, as well as other topics, including human rights, foreign affairs and his personal philanthropic efforts.

About Robert Wolf

While at UBS, Wolf has held several senior positions including Group Regional CEO, COO of UBS Investment Bank, Global Head of Fixed Income and Chair of the firm's Diversity and Community Affairs Committee. He joined UBS in 1994 after spending approximately 10 years at Salomon Brothers.

In addition to his roles at UBS, Wolf was appointed as a member of President Obama's Council on Jobs and Competitiveness and prior to that was on the President's Economic Recovery Advisory Board chaired by former Federal Reserve Chair Paul Volcker, from 2009-2011. He is on the Undergraduate Executive Board of the Wharton School and on the Athletics Board of Overseers at the University of Pennsylvania. Wolf sits on the Board for the Robert F. Kennedy Center for Justice and Human Rights as well as on the Multiple Myeloma Research Foundation where he was honored with Lance Armstrong for his work on cancer awareness.

He is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and on the Committee Encouraging Corporate Philanthropy and was on the Board of Directors of the Financial Services Roundtable from 2007-2010. Wolf also serves on the boards of a number of non-profit institutions including the Children's Aid Society and the Partnership for NYC.

Wolf graduated from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania with a B.S. in Economics in 1984. He is married with two children and currently resides in Purchase, New York.
