Education Session No. 360:
Get ready to clear your OTC derivatives trades!

September 19, 2012 at 6 PM
San Francisco, CA

Central clearing of OTC derivatives is no longer a lofty idea, but a looming reality. Regulators, led by the CFTC, are developing the rules for OTC clearing, as required by The Dodd-Frank Act. As the projected date for centralized clearing quietly draws near, learn the status of the latest developments and the impact the new clearing process will have on the market, especially for buy-side firms.

Participants

Corry Bazley, ICE
Elaine Duff, J.P. Morgan
Jennifer Peve, CME Group
Kathy Wheadon, Moderator, DCI, LLC
