Education Session No. 377:

Reallocation of Assets from Europe to Asia

November 28, 2012
London 1:30 PM
Los Angeles 5:30 AM

Capital knows no boundaries. Using a global asset allocation approach, investors are shifting funds from western assets to those on the Asian continent. Flows are benefitting growth assets and increasingly debt and credit. Parallel to this, there are an increasing number of Asian asset managers and offshore firms establishing divisions in Singapore, Hong Kong and smaller Asian locales. Speaking via videoconference from London, Los Angeles and Hong Kong, our panelists offer their up-to-the-minute insights on these trends and how to capitalize on the capital flows.

Join our first tri-continental event for a lively discussion from Latham Watkins office locations on three continents: London office at 1:30 PM local time; Los Angeles office at 5:30 AM local time, and Hong Kong office at 9:30 PM.
