PERSONAL INVITATION: Sotheby's Diamonds Exclusive Viewing and Cocktail

February 19, 2013 at 6:30 PM
Geneva

For the first and last time, and for one day only, a selection of jewels from the Sotheby's Diamonds collection will be in Geneva and available for viewing. Selected members and guests of 100 Women in Hedge Funds are invited to view the jewels over cocktails at 6.30PM on February 19th at the Beau-Rivage Hotel in Geneva.

Sotheby's Diamonds is a joint venture between Sothebys and the Steinmetz Diamond Group, experts at cutting and polishing extraordinary diamonds. The jewels, specially selected stones placed in dramatic settings by James de Givenchy, world-renowned jewellery designer, are hand-crafted by European-trained artisans. The collection provides access to exceptional jewels at advantageous prices and bespoke work can be undertaken.

In addition to the cocktail, it is possible to book individual private viewings from 2.30PM to 6:00PM on February 19th, by appointment with Sotheby's.

About Sotheby's Diamonds

The Sotheby's Diamonds Collection presents rare and important diamonds in dramatic settings, resulting in a true marriage of jewellery and art. The one-of-a-kind jewels are meticulously hand-crafted by European-trained artisans at one of the few remaining world-class jewellery ateliers in New York. The Collection is available at the Sotheby's Diamonds salon in New York, as well as through exclusive selling exhibitions worldwide.

Sotheby's Diamonds is a unique partnership between the world's oldest international auction house and the Steinmetz Diamonds Group, renowned experts in cutting and polishing extraordinary diamonds for over seven decades.
