Sponsors, Mentors and Coaches-What, When, Why and Who?

July 10, 2013 at 6:30 PM
London

What is the value of sponsoring and mentoring for senior practitioners? Why do senior practitioners need a sponsor and a mentor? When and how should you seek a sponsor, a mentor or a coach?

Join senior practitioners of the London Legal and Compliance PAG and Investor PAG in a discussion with Executive Coach and Consultant Carrie Coombs. Learn about the impact of mentoring, sponsorship and executive coaching on career advancement and hear tips for finding and working with a mentor, sponsor and coach.

About Coombs Martin Executive Coaching

At Coombs Martin our approach is to coach the whole person, not just the business leader. We focus on building confidence to enable clients to step into and perform better in challenging and demanding roles. We provide clients with a confidential, independent and objective sounding board combined with the benefit of our deep and broad business experience. We understand what executive, senior and high potential professionals face in their everyday working lives. We give them time to think about immediate challenges as well as the more strategic questions. We help clients to: understand themselves and their best ways of working, to build and maintain resilience, and to handle the complexities of their roles. Our coaching leads to practical solutions for clients to manage their businesses, teams, and the demands of the markets in which they work. We facilitate senior team and board evaluation and development, challenging them to be more effective and efficient in communicating, taking hard decisions and leading change.
