About OnePointSix

OnePointSix (<http://onepointsixnyc.com/>) is a new NYC based womenswear brand inspired by the art and experience of men's dressing. We cater to today's discerning and dynamic women by offering a well-edited collection of reimagined classics made so that every woman can achieve their own golden ratio, which is also the inspiration behind our name.

Karen Tai is the Founder of OnePointSix. Prior to starting OnePointSix in late 2013, Karen spent six years in finance, most recently working as a financial analyst covering global fashion and lifestyle brands. Karen graduated from Brown University in 2007 with a concentration in Engineering and Economics.

About Vinoshare

Vinoshare is a new wine distributor focused primarily on distributing quality wines from Spain to Hong Kong. The company distributes directly from the wineries to the end customer, mainly online, and shares their unique stories behind each wine maker. Vinoshare believes that wine can make people relax and feel refreshed after a hard day's work. Wine can also surprise people when paired with food and can share the joy with others.
