

Can Fine Art be a Fine Investment?

August 25, 2015 at 6 PM
Zurich

Did you know that art market sales reached an all-time high in 2014? The art market is booming; is it time for you to invest? Discover and better understand this niche alternative asset class, while mingling with old and new friends at the Galerie Clemens Gunzer. Get insights and ask questions about how you, your firm or a client might explore art as investment, as you enjoy cocktails and hors d'oeuvres. Jonathan Levy, Managing Director of Palmarium Art, shares his perspective on the art market and starting a collection. Come network, bring a guest, and learn about investing in art.

Biography

Nicolas Nussbaum, Director, Head of Hedge Funds for Switzerland, BlackRock

Nicolas is in charge of BlackRock's hedge fund activities and liquid alternative investments in Switzerland, across all client segments (institutional and retail/wealth) covering HF investors from pension funds and insurance companies to private banks and family offices. Before taking on this new role in 2015, Nicolas was Head of retail sales for BlackRock in the Geneva region and the broader French-speaking part of Switzerland. Prior to joining BlackRock in early 2008, Nicolas worked for 7 years at Lombard Odier, where he was heading a Client Services team involved with institutional clients. Nicolas holds a Master's degree in Economics and Finance from the HEC University of Lausanne.
