Biographies

Laurie Goodman, Director, Housing Finance Policy Center, Urban Institute
The Housing Finance Policy Center at the Urban Institute is dedicated to providing policymakers with data-driven analyses of housing finance policy issues that they can depend on for relevance, accuracy, and independence. Before joining Urban in 2013, Goodman spent 30 years as an analyst and research department manager at a number of Wall Street firms. From 2008 to 2013, she was a senior managing director at Amherst Securities Group, LP, a boutique broker/dealer specializing in securitized products, where her strategy effort became known for its analysis of housing policy issues. From 1993 to 2008, Goodman was head of global fixed income research and manager of US securitized products research at UBS and predecessor firms, which were ranked first by Institutional Investor for 11 straight years. Prior to UBS, she was a senior fixed income analyst, a mortgage portfolio manager, and a senior economist at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. Goodman was inducted into the Fixed Income Analysts Hall of Fame in 2009.

Laurie currently serves on the board of directors of MFA Financial, a Real Estate Investment Trust, is an advisor to Amherst Capital Management (ACaM), and is a member of the Bipartisan Policy Center's Housing Commission, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York's Financial Advisory Roundtable, and the New York State Mortgage Relief Incentive Fund Advisory Committee. She has published more than 200 journal articles and has co-authored and co-edited five books.

Goodman has a BA in mathematics from the University of Pennsylvania and an MA and PhD in economics from Stanford University.

Richard Johns, Executive Director, Structured Finance Industry Group
Richard Johns is the Executive Director of SFIG, with responsibility for all aspects of the organization. A longtime leader in the securitization industry, Mr. Johns, has more than 17 years of structured finance experience. Previously Mr. Johns had roles as Head of Global Funding and Liquidity at Ally Financial Inc, Head of Global Capital Markets at Capital One Financial Corp and as a transaction lead at MBNA (now Bank of America).

Mr. Johns has issued securitized products across a variety of platforms, including; credit cards, auto (retail, lease and floor-plan), RMBS, Agency, small business, and unsecured installment loan products. He has experience across both domestic and international issuance, including Canada, Latin America, Europe and China. Mr. Johns is also a qualified Chartered Accountant within the U.K., having completed his training with Deloitte. He is a graduate of the University of Manchester, UK with a bachelor's degree in Economics.

Eric Patlovich, Principal and Portfolio Manager, New Century Advisors

He has research and trading responsibilities, focusing in particular on the mortgage-backed and structured product markets. He also researches and implements duration management strategies in the global money markets and manages New Century Advisors' foreign exchange trading. Eric received a BS in Commerce (with concentrations in finance and marketing) from the McIntire School of Commerce at the University of Virginia. He holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation.

Faith Schwartz, Senior Vice President, CoreLogic
Faith joined CoreLogic in 2013 to lead a Washington based effort in building business and relationships with the Government, non-profits, think tanks and universities. She now leads the public policy efforts for CoreLogic in Washington DC. Prior to this, she led the crisis era HOPE NOW Alliance, a non-profit coalition created in 2007 to bring together, trades, servicers, lenders, investors, Federal Reserve Banks, Government agencies, and government-sponsored enterprises (GSEs) to help homeowners in distress stay in their homes. She was a public face throughout the housing crisis, participating in interviews, face-to-face outreach events with distressed homeowners, and through congressional testimony at the Federal and State level. Faith has also testified to the Federal Reserve Board.

Faith has served on many industry boards and advisory committees such as the Federal Reserve CAC, Housing Policy Council HPEC, SFIG, CSP advisory committee, President of WHF, MBA, and HOPE LoanPort, a non-profit which provides a communication loan workout vehicle for borrowers, counselors, and investors. Faith was a founder of HOPE LoanPort.

She started her career at Dominion Bankshares Mortgage Company in Capital Markets, pricing mortgages and issuing GNMA, Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac mortgage backed securities. Faith held senior positions in all aspects of the mortgage industry, including as an entrepreneur with two companies. Faith was highlighted by the Mortgage Bankers Association of America as one of the 20 Distinguished Industry Women and in 2012 as well as Housing Wire's Women of Influence. She also received a lifetime achievement award from the five star institute.
She holds a BSBA in accounting from Shippensburg State College and an MBA with a finance concentration from the University of Pittsburgh.
