In today's highly competitive business environment, it takes more than hard work to get ahead. Those who increase their visibility in the workplace are more likely to be considered for opportunities for professional advancement.

Join us for an interactive discussion on how to increase your visibility at work, without bragging or stealing the spotlight from your colleagues. We will also share tips on how to increase your organization's visibility with current or potential customers, partners and investors.

Connect with colleagues and catch up on other industry trends at this by-invitation lunch for senior practitioners.
