

Education Session No. 632:
Using Professional Skills to Enhance the Personal Realm

April 19, 2016 at 5:30 PM
Hamilton, Bermuda

For more than fifty years, our society has been fascinated by the quest for "work-life balance". Bermudian Rhodes Scholar Christie Hunter Arscott explores whether professionals should focus less on the separation of work and home. Christie will discuss how we can apply our business skills to the management and improvement of our personal lives.

Network with members and sample wines, guided by Two Rock Wine Company's sommeliers.
