

Silicon Valley Non-Profit Board Match

September 14, 2016 at 4 PM
Mountain View, CA

The board members at more than 100 nonprofit organizations want to make a match among 1,000 professionals like yourself who seek to serve on boards. With your financial, operations and marketing expertise, you can help local nonprofits better serve the community. Find your leadership role at a nonprofit by attending Board Match Silicon Valley.

Registered attendees will receive a list of participating nonprofits prior to the event, so you can identify the organizations of greatest interest. Under how you heard about the event on the registration, be sure to select "Professional Association" and enter 100WHF. We will have a table just after registration so you can meet other members and get an identifying sticker.

Whether or not you attend the Board Match event, if interested in serving on a nonprofit board, please complete the 100WHF US Nonprofit Board questionnaire to be included in board searches and to be invited to selective and complimentary board education/training, networking and VIP events.

About Board Match

Board Match lets nonprofits meet thousands of prospective board candidates face-to-face. Board Match is a networking event providing nonprofit organizations an opportunity to meet with highly qualified board candidates from major employers, across industries including financial services, legal, health care, real estate, marketing/public relations, technology and more.

Since 2005, Board Match has introduced more than 8,500 prospective board candidates to 700 nonprofits. As Board Match launches events in cities across the country we'll reach 16,000 people annually and place 2,500 new board members on over 1,000 nonprofit boards.
