Mentoring the Next Generation of Women in Finance

October 6, 2016 at 12:45 PM
Zurich

Mentoring is a leadership imperative and key to many 100 Women in Hedge Funds members. With that in mind, you can explore ways to develop and maximize a mentoring relationship, plus master other professional skills at a half-day workshop and keynote presentation.

100 Women in Hedge Funds offers you the opportunity to hear from experienced panelists and keynote speakers about their experiences in climbing the corporate ladder. You will also participate in several interactive round table discussions with expert mentors and executive coaches and network amongst your peers.

The workshop will be followed by an additional session, a presentation on negotiation skills by Giuseppe Conti.

This mentoring program is designed for women with fewer than 10 years of industry experience. You will leave the day with advice on how to make the right career choices, as well as a better understanding of yourself and your mentoring and coaching needs.

Participants in the afternoon workshop are invited to also attend the evening session with The Honorable Suzan G. LeVine, United States Ambassador to Switzerland and Liechtenstein.

The fee for the mentoring program, negotiating skills session, keynote presentation and evening networking reception is CHF 50; click here to register. Spaces are limited. All net proceeds will support 100WHF's Next Generation initiatives and specifically fund Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst Association (CAIA) Fundamentals of Alternative Investments Certificate Program® online courses for "return to work" candidates based in Switzerland.
