Education Session No. 675:
Career, Ambition, Money, Investment Banking and Women: A Private Screening of "Equity"

November 21, 2016 at 6:30 PM
Hong Kong

Join us for an exclusive screening of Equity, the first fictional financial thriller focused on the experiences of senior women investment bankers on Wall Street. In this Sony Pictures Classics release, women are not only central to the film's storyline but paramount to its production. Written by Amy Fox, Equity was directed by Meera Menon, and produced by Broad Street Pictures - a company founded and owned by a female team. With scores of women bankers advising on the script as well as financing the film itself, Equity promises to deliver an unvarnished look into the dynamics between three women working in conflicting channels of high finance. Starring Breaking Bad actress Anna Gunn, Sarah Megan Thomas and Alysia Reiner, many of the themes explored in Equity, though fictional, will no doubt resonate with 100WHF members.

As there are no plans for a general release of the film in Hong Kong, special acknowledgement goes to Jon Fox at Varde, Executive Producer Candy Straight and Sony Pictures Classics for their generous efforts in making this screening possible. We also wanted to thank Morgan Stanley Hong Kong for hosting the event.

Mark your calendar for Monday, November 21, to take advantage of this rare opportunity!
