TOUR OF SIMMONS AND SIMMONS ART COLLECTION WITH STUART EVANS

Simmons & Simmons has been collecting modern and contemporary art for more than fifteen years. Like the firm, the collection has grown increasingly international. Nonetheless, it remains true to its original objective of supporting young artists, early in their careers, by acquiring significant work. Over the years, the collection has become increasingly international, with work by American, Australian, Dutch, French, German, Irish, Japanese and South African artists, including Turner prize winners Michael Raedecker and Wolfgang Tillmans. You and eight guests can enjoy a private viewing of this renowned collection with Stuart Evans as your personal guide.

Stuart Evans has been a partner at international law firm Simmons & Simmons since 1981 and has been responsible for assembling a major collection of contemporary art for Simmons & Simmons. Between 1997 and 2000 Stuart was chairman of the Tate Patrons of New Art and in 2001 was a juror of the Turner Prize. In 2006 Stuart and his son John began acquiring works of art for the Lodeveans Collection, a new international collection of contemporary art which aims to provide a resource for public institutions.

CONDITIONS OF BUSINESS FOR THE 100 WOMEN IN HEDGE FUNDS INAUGURAL LONDON GALA AND AUCTION TO BE HELD ON JUNE 13TH, 2007 AT THE ROYAL COURTS OF JUSTICE

The property offered in this sale and listed in this catalogue will be sold by the 100 Women in Hedge Funds, Limited ("100WHF"), registered with the Companies House under number #06057707. Any questions in relation to the auction should be directed to 100WHF and not to Sotheby's, which serves merely as auctioneer for 100WHF in conducting the sale and participates on the following terms and conditions which govern the sale of all the property offered (as amended by any posted notices or oral announcements during the auction):

1. (a) Neither Sotheby's nor 100WHF assumes any risk, liability or responsibility for the authenticity or the authorship of any property identified in this catalogue (that is, the identity of the creator or the period, culture, source or origin, as the case may be, with which the creation of any property is identified herein).

(b) All property is sold with all faults and imperfections and errors of description and neither Sotheby's nor 100WHF makes any representations or warranties of any kind or nature, expressed or implied, with respect to the property and in no event shall either of them be responsible for the correctness of any descriptions of property, nor be deemed to have made, any representations or warranties of physical condition, size, quality, rarity, importance, genuineness, attribution, authenticity or provenance of the property. No statement in the auction catalogue or other description made at the sale, in any sale invoice or elsewhere, shall be deemed such a representation or warranty.

(c) Prospective bidders should inspect the property before bidding to determine its condition, size and whether or not it has been repaired or restored.

(d) Property may be offered subject to reserves.
 2. Any property may be withdrawn by Sotheby's or 100WHF at any time before the actual sale.
 3. Unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer at the time of sale, all bids are per lot as numbered in the catalogue.
 4. Sotheby's and 100WHF reserve the right to reject a bid from any bidder. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer shall be the purchaser. In the event of any dispute between bidders, the auctioneer shall have sole and final discretion either to determine the successful bidder or to re-offer and resell the lot in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, the sale records of the 100WHF shall be conclusive in all respects.
 5. If the auctioneer determines that any opening bid is not commensurate with the value of the property, he may reject the same and withdraw the property from sale, and if, having acknowledged an opening bid, he decides that any advance thereafter is insufficient, he may reject the advance.
 6. On the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, the highest bidder shall be deemed to have purchased the offered lot subject to all of the conditions set forth herein and thereupon (a) assumes the risk and responsibility thereof, (b) will sign a confirmation of purchase thereof and (c) will pay the full purchase price or such part as 100WHF may require. 100WHF will not release a lot to a successful buyer until payment of the total amount due has been made.
- If the foregoing conditions and other applicable conditions are not complied with, in addition to other remedies available to 100WHF by law including, without limitation, the right to hold the purchaser liable for the bid price, 100WHF, at its option, may either (a) cancel the sale, retaining as liquidated damages all payments made by the purchaser or (b) resell the property on three days notice to the purchaser and for the account and risk of the purchaser, either publicly or privately, and in such event the purchaser shall be liable for payment of any shortfall between the original sale price and the price achieved upon resale, all other charges due hereunder and any incidental damages.
7. Payments for purchases must be made in Sterling and in the following forms; cash, cheque (backed by cheque guarantee card) and all major credit cards.
 8. In the case of commission bids or bids transmitted by telephone, Sotheby's and 100WHF are not responsible for errors or omissions arising out of or resulting from mechanical difficulties or failure.
 9. In no circumstances will Sotheby's or 100WHF rescind any purchase made or refund the amount paid in respect of any lot.
 10. Neither shipping nor delivery costs are included in the price at which a lot is knocked down by the auctioneer to the buyer.
 11. These Conditions of Sale, as well as the purchaser's, 100WHF and Sotheby's respective rights and obligations hereunder, shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. By bidding at an auction, whether present in person or by agent, commission bid, telephone or other means, the purchaser shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of Courts of England and Wales.

Persuading you that he isn't just a useless, troublesome waster isn't the problem.
It's how do we persuade him?

You can offer someone a job, but what if they don't want a job? You can offer someone training, but what if they don't want to learn anything? Why bother? That's what a lot of young people in Britain think. 'There's no point trying at school because it won't get me a job afterwards 'cos there aren't any jobs.' Or: 'There's no point in taking some poxy job that pays less than my benefits.' Or: 'I'll never get a job because I've already got a record, so there's no point staying out of trouble now.'

At The Prince's Trust we understand, but we don't agree. We think that every young person has the potential to achieve something in their life. We help 100 more young people every day. The success of those we've helped in the past can help give others the motivation, confidence and determination they need. With that, they can make the most of the support, guidance, and the chance to learn new skills.

Over 70% of them go on to find work or training. Thousands have started their own businesses. And 93% of them actually recommend us to other people they know. They recommend us because we've helped them make a difference to their lives. We helped them realise their potential. If you'd like more information call 0800 842 842. Or visit princes-trust.org.uk
